

Join us as a co-sponsor of the Hear Us Now conference!
Please contact us by March 25 at info@mergerwatch.org.

We invite sister organizations to co-sponsor the April 17 and 18 conference and help provide scholarships for low-income women to participate. Your support will be recognized in the conference program.

We have established several levels of support from which you can choose. Please

Supporter: Register at least one participant from your organization and share information about the conference with your members.

Sponsor: Register at least one participant from your organization, contribute at least $300 to the scholarship fund, which supports the attendance of low-income women, and share information about the conference with your members.

Benefactor: Register at least one participant from your organization and contribute at least $600 to support the scholarship fund and conference costs.

Patron: Register at least one participant from your organization and contribute at least $900 to support the scholarship fund and conference costs.

Angel: Register at least one participant from your organization and contribute at least $1200 to support the scholarship fund and conference costs.
